

Sherin Moustafa is a multifaceted and accomplished pianist and instructor based out of the Phoenix metro area. Born in Egypt with Taiwanese heritage, Sherin speaks fluent Chinese and English, and is competent in Japanese, Arabic, German, Italian, and French. Her cultural background allows her to develop a worldview and an appreciation for both western and eastern music. Not surprisingly, Sherin fell in love with music at a young age because it has both the creative and serene elements that she saw in herself.

Sherin is the co-owner of Music Lessons Arizona in Tempe. She has a master's degree in Collaborative Piano Performance and a bachelor's degree in Music Therapy from Arizona State University. Sherin serves as the organist and pianist at Chandler United Methodist Church. She is a versatile pianist specializing in classical, music theatre, contemporary and other popular genres, and is often invited to perform at special events because of her ability to provide a captivating performance. Her passion for music and vibrant personality not only make her a mesmerizing performer, but also an effective piano teacher.

Sherin has received awards from piano competitions and was a recipient of the Neely Music Talent Scholarship. She was also the keyboardist of 2015 Zoni award winning cast of Dreamgirls. Sherin has performed on numerous occasions at ASU's Katzin Concert Hall, Organ Hall, Recital Hall, Gammage and Kerr Cultural Center, Chandler Center for the Arts and Mesa Arts Center both as a soloist, and a collaborative pianist.

Sherin served as an adjunct faculty and collaborative pianist at Mesa Community College and collaborative pianist/co-director at Perry High School. With Sherin's assistance, Perry High School concert choir achieved the Superior Award at the 2011 Heritage Festival. As a result, the choir was invited to perform at Carnegie Hall in New York City in March of 2012. Under Sherin's tutelage, more than 96% of her piano students have been awarded superior honors through the Arizona Study Program, and selected students have won local piano competitions. Sherin is a proud member of East Valley Music Teacher Association (EVMTA), Arizona State Music Teacher Association (ASMTA) and Music Teacher National Association (MTNA). She is currently the Vice President of EVMTA, and will officially become the President on July 1st, 2019. Sherin has a passion for teaching and is committed to developing excellence from her piano students.

Sherin is also a realtor-Client Focused. Results Driven.

Sherin brings 3 years of experience in real estate, excellent customer service and a commitment to work hard, listen and follow through. Communication is paramount in business. Sherin dedicates herself to your challenges, needs and goals so you can have piece of mind when buying or selling your home.