Missions

Did you hear that noise - hammers pounding, saws cutting, voices raised as they worked together? That is the sound of a new home being built by Habitat for Humanity workers.

Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping families in need by building affordable, safe homes and strengthening communities across the world.

Through volunteer labor and donations, Habitat brings people together to construct houses, offering hope and stability to those who might otherwise struggle to find a place to call home.

We here at Chandler United Methodist Church can support Habitat for Humanity's mission this year by raising money to help fund the construction of a new house. Every dollar contributed will go directly toward materials and building costs, making a real difference for a deserving family. We will kick off our campaign this Sunday with a visit from Habitat Director Erin Mowad. Join us as we help provide a fresh start and a brighter future for someone in need.

Jesus as Liberator

We have all heard stories about Jesus. Most of us have heard stories about Jesus all our lives. Depending on who is telling the story Jesus might seem like a liberal, a conservative, a hippie, a good American, a superb businessman, a motivational speaker, or the Son of God. But who was Jesus really?

The answer to that question may surprise us.

We will explore that question using the DVD “Jesus as Liberator” by Richard Rohr in the Monday Zoom Online Bible Discussion - Six Weeks

Jesus As Liberator

This is not the “church-ified” Jesus we are used to hearing about. It is not a Jesus that any political party can claim as their own. It is not a Jesus who came to make us good citizens and whose values just happen to coincide with our own.

Instead, Richard Rohr presents Jesus as a compelling person with a unique message that is both transforming and radical. And though we may not be used to understanding Jesus in the way he is presented here, we cannot help but feel that there is the ring of truth, that this is who we knew Jesus was all along. This is the Jesus we encounter when we read the gospels and let them speak for themselves.
